1 Defendant's historical counsel, Rory C. Mattson (admitted pro hac vice) of the law firm 2 of Messerli & Kramer, P.A., left the firm recently and was the primary attorney litigating this 3 complex case. Local Counsel Richard G. Campbell, Jr., Esq. was not the attorney that was hired 4 to try the case by Defendant/Counterclaimant. While Mr. Campbell has diligently monitored the 5 case, Defendant/Counterclaimant desires that the law office of Messerli & Kramer, P.A. try the 6 matter. Thus, a new attorney from that firm must apply to this Court pro hac vice and familiarize 7 themself with the pleadings and rulings by this Court. 8 9 While Mr. Campbell has monitored the pleadings, he has not met with the clients to 10 strategize and make decisions regarding witnesses and exhibits given the complexity of this case. 11 Counsel for Plaintiff/Counterdefendant, E. Brent Bryson, Esq., and local counsel for 12 Defendant/Counterclaimant, Richard G. Campbell, Jr., Esq., conferred on September 8, 2022 13 regarding this stipulation and determined, pursuant to the above rules, that good cause exists to 14 extend the time to file the proposed joint pretrial order for sixty (60) days until November 8, 15 16 2022.
